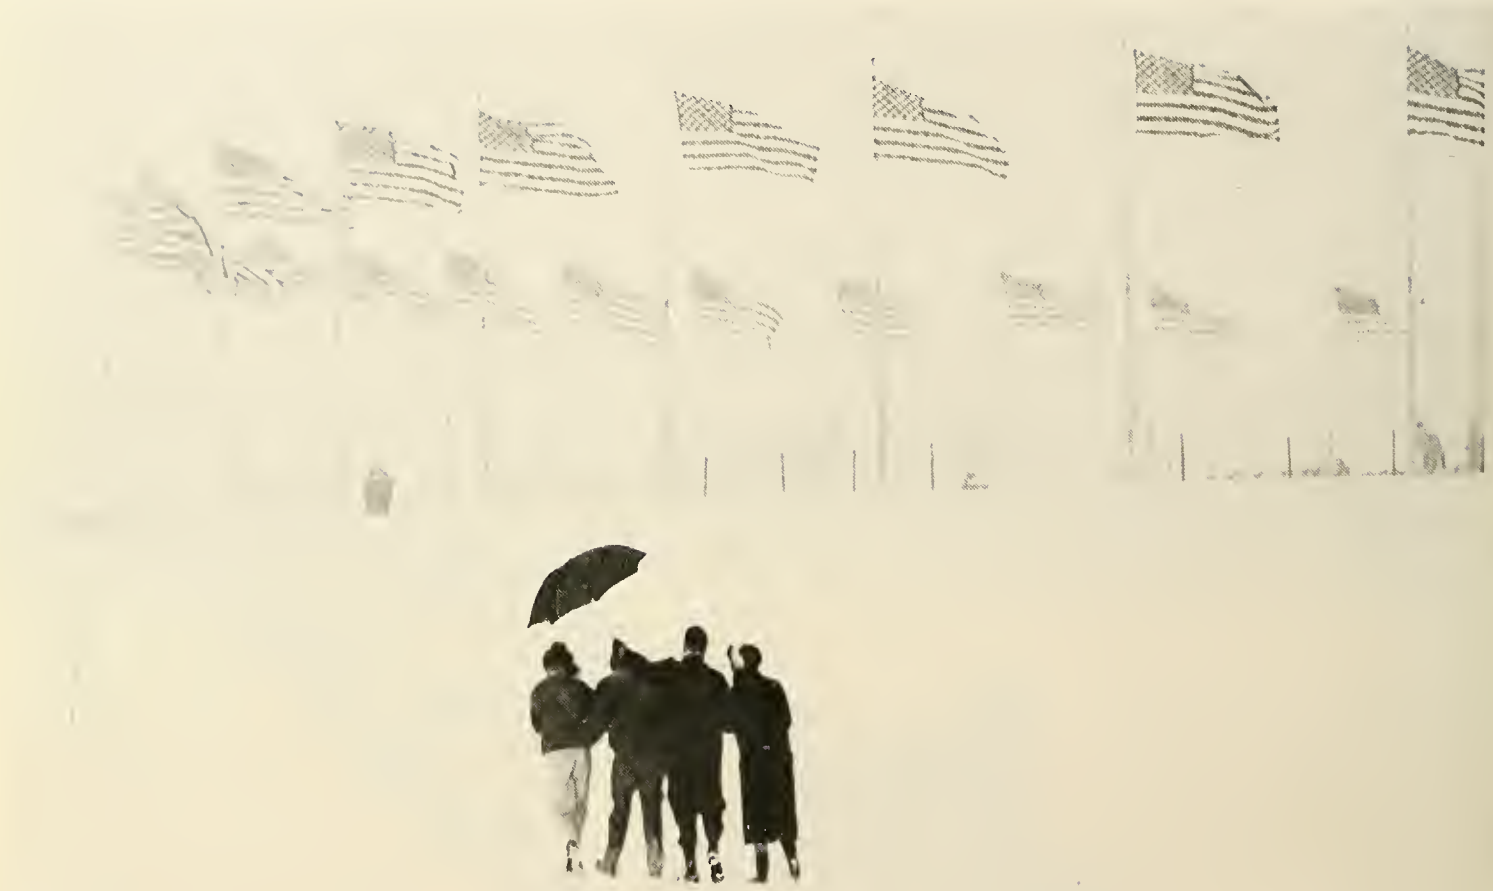
They Dared



In 1776, America's dream of freedom rang true with the Red, the White and the Blue.

To Dream . . .

In 1989, East Germany's dream of freedom made THE WALL come crumbling down.

Star Lights

Who is that masked man? Mr. Leach?

Returning from the gym . . . how can they be this happy?

A tisket-a-tasket two trolls with their baskets.

This happy bunch is heading for lunch.

Armand "Tank" Lafleche and Paul "Snuffy" Girard cheer on the J.V. Team.

Senior "TROLLS" Nick, Mandi, Chris and Nicki! Mr. Desroches asks "Ever dance with the devil in the pale moonlight?" The Sophomore Class. Melissa Cruz raps in the freshman skit.

Spirit Is Alive And Well As

Pioneer Classes Rally To Win

OH Eee Oh !! Trolls, Nerds, Muscle Maniacs, and even The Grinch!

They dazzled, bewitched, and intrigued us at S.H.S.'s annual Thanksgiving Day Rally with their creative costuming, big belching, fantastic flexing, and dog dragging. Of course, Ms. Turkey burst upon the scene just in time to witness the traditional "cordial" class competitiveness and spectacular S.H.S. spirit!

Senior Trolls carry King Chokie during the group yelling contest. Senior football players carry Ms. Turkey (Darryl Howe) to her grand Thanksgiving entrance.

Class of 2003

A brand new class started the new year in high school. The pre-school program was moved from the elementary schools to the former home ecc room. High school students are given the opportunity to work with the younger students much to the enjoyment of everyone involved.

Angela Bibeau and Amanda Lagevin enjoy playing a game together.

Diana Lantini is building a castle with blocks.

Heidi Bunker shows Margo Partlow and Jennifer Jalowiec how to use the sand box.

Christopher Vetter and Melissa Spooner glue decorations for Christmas with the help of Carla Partlow.

The gangs all here!

Dan Cournoyer and others dance the night away.

Alison Bartlett, Kristin Dall, Jen Lavallee and Holly Augusto are waiting for dessert.

Jeremy Rines, Peter Brown and Danny Brouillard are a bunch of "Wild and Crazy Guys!"

"Go Eddie, Go!"

Deedle Dum and Deedle Dee

Gabe Simonelli, Vince Lesniewski and the long lost Floridian - Tino Tiberii reminisce about the good old days.

Senior class advisor Mrs. L'Heureux catches a fast dance with her husband.

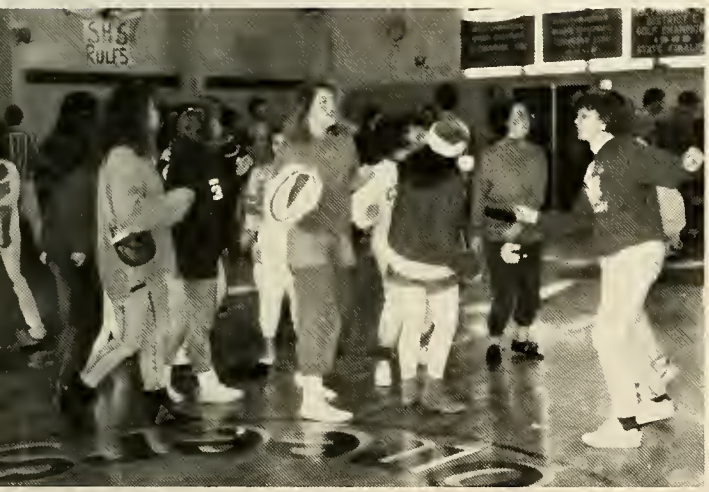
A Christmas Carol



Southbridge High Style

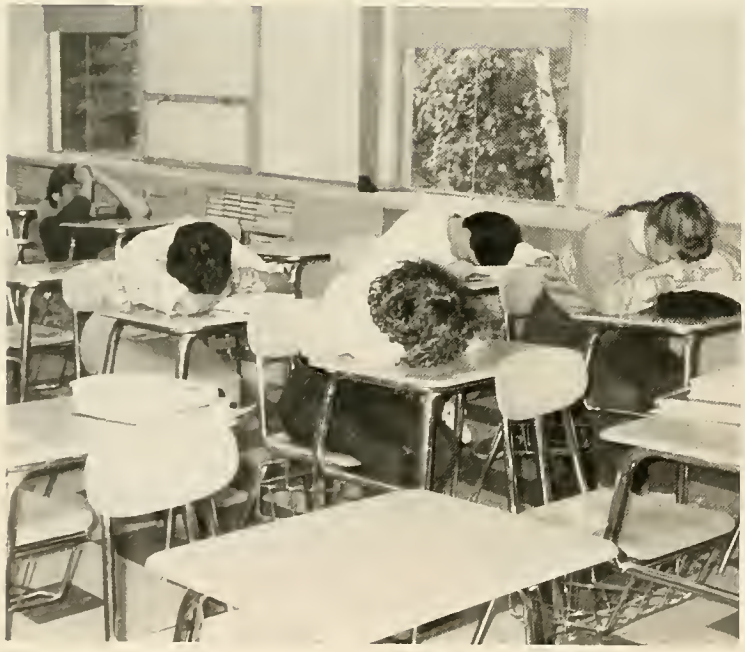
SURPRISE!!

SMILES!!

ZZZzzzzzzz . . . . . .

Hiding out and lounging in the nurse's office.

Tired students



Tired students---continued on next page . . . . .

Chris Hefner looks like he can read with his eyes closed.

Ken Amiott struggles to keep awake.

Chad Splaine lets out a big Yawn.

Office Detention---The Valley of Sleepy Punishment.

Somedays Dreams are . . .

Nightmares

Every year the Southbridge High student body takes part in Halloween dress-up day. This is a day of ghouls, ghosts, goblins and fun. Even some of the teachers participate. It's a great day for all out school "spirts" to show.

Everybody likes something about Halloween. Donna Lamothe says "I like to steal the little kids candy." John Poswiatoski likes it because it raises school spirit. While Liana Marcin hates it because "I'm too old to trick or treat."

Top Right Becky Bartoli pulled the rabbit out of the hat — Lisa Bernadone that is. Mrs. Sullivan was given a bouquet of balloons by her staff. Bottom Missy Anger and Cara Maisano enjoy Halloween.

Top It's the Great Pumpkin Gabrielle Poirier. Bottom Mr. Thomas has a real variety of students in his college biology class.

All Locked Up

"Don't invade my space!" cry out SHS students. To an SHSer, the LOCKER is sacred space. "I always lock my locker because I don't want people snooping around in my stuff", declares senior Dawn Diani. Common SHS "stuff" includes pictures of favorite groups, friends and quotes on life's philosophies - items termed by junior Kristen Lesniewski as "the basics". For senior Karyn LeBlanc, "the basics" are just not enough. Her locker is "colorful, funky and fab" - complete with a tape recorder for musical entertainment. It's no wonder we become protective of our locker space like freshman Heather Brown who agrees that small lockers, poking elbows and neighbors who fling their locker doors open are "ANNOYING". SHS lockers are our pride and joy - worth safeguarding. They are focal points in our day as they provide places to hang out between classes and ways to express our personalities. (The exception being sophomores like Jeff Mathieu who must sprint to class after a locker visit in Cole Trade). "My locker decorations reflect the four years of my life at SHS", says Karyn LeBlanc. Oh, and by the way . . . our lockers provide great storage compartments for burdensome textbooks and smelly gym clothes.

Karen L'Ecuyer and Chad Mathieu grab books between classes.

The special grand prize winner of the locker competition "Paradise Found" decorated by Ms. Tashjian.

The Burger King Gift Certificate goes to Tricia Murphy for the "Best Locker Contest."

At SHS, there's a skeleton in every closet.

Nice and Tight

Even macho men like Sean Carragher and Darryl Howe have the knack for interior decorating.

Karyn LeBlanc updates her locker with new technology like the locker recorder.

Kim Guertin is caught in the act of cramming a note between classes.

Erica Munson proudly displays her locker of the "90's."

Scholastic Stars

Woodworking student Chris Goulet takes aim on a board.

Wanda Merced and Amy Theriault practice their typing skills.

Marvin Perrin and Ray Hebert look into another world.

Tommy Koumanelis and Marc Julian finish a little homework in study.

Mr. Thomas's period 6 biology class seems to enjoy their studies.

All We Do Is Paperwork

"You mean the due date is already here?!" Gasp overworked students. Research papers, lab reports, bookreports, essays, accounting forms, homework, where does it end? When one project is completed another one takes its place. "It's all in a day's work." claim demanding teachers. A day and a NIGHT maybe. Sometimes keeping long hours as needed to complete dreaded assignments.

Beware of due dates and plagiarism. Teachers have a way of detecting when we pile it "higher and deeper."

Cramped fingers, blurry eyes and frazzled nerves are sometimes the end result of hard work. Is it all worth it? You bet! Just think how much practice you will have had when it's time to write those college essays or business reports.

Penny Laliberte's quick fingers do the adding.

Those who dream
May not touch the sky,
But they will always
Walk in stardust

Leaves are falling all around
Time I was on my way
Thanks to you, I'm much oblidged.
It was a pleasant stay.

There's a light in our eyes
That keeps shining
Like a star
That can't wait for the night.

Don't walk in front of me
I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me
I may not lead.
Just walk beside me
And be my friend . .

Football

With Coach Theodoss returning for his fifth season as head coach for the Pioneers, Southbridge gained the recognition and respect they well deserved. Coach Theodoss instilled within the team a sense of discipline, worth, and confidence which they displayed triumphantly throughout the season. Despite the heart-breaking losses in the team's first two games, they never lost their determination or spirit. Compiling an admirable 8-2 record, the Pioneers were also victorious in the extremely competitive Border Conference. They were totally dominant and undefeated, and proudly earned the Conference Title. "A Courage Mightier Than The Sun, — You Rose And Fought And, Fighting, You Won!!"

Field Hockey

Pioneer stickers leave their mark.

After losing all but four starters to graduation, Southbridge tentatively began the season having little experience on the varsity level. The girls opened with a 1-1 tie with Holy Name. That tie not only demonstrated that they were a team possessing much talent, but also that they had the potential for success and a district berth. The regular season ended with a well earned 10-1-2 record, and the pioneers went on to the District semi-finals vs. Oakmont regional. Although they lost 1-0, the girls were left with much to be proud of many memories, much experience, a newly found "family", and for all, the knowledge neccessary for years to come. This year's Border conference All-Stars were Capt. Jennie Ferron, Mandi Bruce, and Nora Loos. "The essential thing in life is not to have won but to have fought well."

Jennie Ferron stretches to gain possession of the ball.

To the Class of 1990:
We made it everyone — our Senior year! During the years that we have spent at Southbridge High, some of us made new friends, some of us had conflicts with old friends, and all of us had good times, bad times, and sad times, but we did it together as a class, and that is what counts the most. Soon we will be going our separate ways, and I just want to say that I'll never forget any of you and all the memories that we've shared together. Congratulations Class of 1990, on all of your accomplishments. May all your dreams come true.
Love always,
Nicole Chouinard

Dear Nicor,
Graduation is often call commencement excercises. Commencement means a beginning or a start. From very proud parents, Congratulations, you have successfully completed the first step of a new beginning.

We've had some bad times,
we've enjoyed lots of good times.
We've had our share of sad times.
And we've shared countless happy times.
You have had to grow up much too quickly,
And we are so very proud of the man
you've turned out to be.
Best of luck and happiness always with all our love.
Mom, Jeff, Steven, and Jessica

To our Son and Friend
God had granted us to raise such a fantastic Son,
We have taught you right from wrong and you have taught us the same. We have all learned to grow with that lesson. May you get what you want out of life no matter what the consequences are. Life is full of surprises and we know you will surprise us all.
Love Always

Danielle,
The things we inherit from our elders are tools: a strong back, a fine mind. Character is something we create ourselves by making right or wrong choices.
